

Number: 02-4588/20
Sarajevo, October 2, 2020

Based on the article 104, paragraphs a) and p) of the Statute of the University in Sarajevo, Council of the School of Economics and Business, University of Sarajevo, held a sitting on October 2nd, 2020, and adopted a

DECISION

on teaching in 2020/2021 academic year regular and regular self-funded studies

DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT – teaching in English

I

In the fifth (V) semester, students can opt for one of the following specializations:

- Financial Management
- Marketing management

II

In the fifth (V) semester, students can opt for taking one elective course within the specialization:

1. Business Ethics – elective course within the specialization Financial Management
2. Business Ethics – elective course within the specialization Marketing Management

III

In the sixth (VI) semester, students can opt for taking one elective course (elective course within the specialization or elective course from another department/faculty), those being:

1. Evaluation Enterprise – elective course for the specializaton Finacial Management
2. B2B Marketing – elective course for the specialization Marketing Management

Explanation

Based on the results of the poll on specializations and elective courses in V (fifth) and VI (sixth) semester of the 2020/2021 academic year, with the aim of fulfilling the obligations in regard to teaching, the Council of the School of Economics and Business, University of Sarajevo, adopted the Decision as above stated in a sitting held on October 2nd, 2020.

DEAN

Prof. dr. Jasmina Selimović

Submitted to:

1. Admissions Office
2. Council of the School of Economics and Business
3. SEBS webpage
4. Notice board