Activities stop due to COVID-19 pandemic

- In March 2020, Rector of University of Sarajevo has brought the decision to suspend all mobilities
- The University of Sarajevo considered that it was necessary to respect all rules that contribute to the preservation of health

- Regarding already started mobilities in the Summer semester 2019/2020, our students who were already abroad were contacted, asked to follow all instructions given by government of the host country and offered SEBS assistance where possible.
- 10 SEBS actively communicated with foreign students who were in Sarajevo during lockdown and provided them with administrative and mental health support.
